THE COUNTRY OF HONOUR 2023 : INDIA, GUEST COUNTRY AT THE MILITARY PARADE

India was invited by Emmanuel Macron to take part in the military parade on 14 July, and was the guest of honour at the Cercle Diplomatique et Consulaire de France's Garden Party.

India is a fascinating country, rich in history, culture and tradition. It is also one of the world's most dynamic economies, with rapid growth and a young, dynamic population. As the guest country at the garden party and the guest of honour at the military parade on the Champs Elysées on 14 July, India will be honoured for its contribution to the international scene and for its economic potential.

India is a multi-faceted country with an unrivalled wealth of culture and art. From classical Indian dance to traditional music, spicy cuisine and colourful textiles, India is a treasure trove of diversity cultural heritage.

The country is also famous for its historic monuments, such as the Taj Mahal, one of the most visited sites in the world.

Economically, India is one of the world's most dynamic economies, with rapid growth with a young dynamic population. The country is a world leader in information technology, pharmaceuticals and the automotive industry. India is also a fast-growing market for French companies, with numerous investment and partnership opportunities.

India's presence at the Cercle Diplomatique et Consulaire de France garden party is a unique opportunity to celebrate the cultural and economic wealth of this fascinating country. We look forward to discovering the wonders of India and celebrating its economic potential at these exceptional events.
